CHRISTMAS on the RIVER

PAGEANT RULES & REGULATIONS

All pageant participants must meet the criteria and follow the guidelines outlined below in order to participate in any division of the Christmas on the River Pageants.

-  Participants must live AND attend school within a forty-five mile radius of Demopolis.
-  Participants should be upstanding, productive citizens within their school and the community.
-  Once you have won an age division you cannot participate in that division again. You must wait until you move into the next age category.
-  Participants should choose age-appropriate dress for pageant competition. It WILL be communicated to the judges to take this factor into consideration when scoring.
-  Participants who win or place MUST attend the subsequent pageants in their pageant attire with crown and/or sash – participants must sit in designated area and display behavior appropriate to their title (no gum or cell phones).
-  Participants who win or place MUST attend the required events during the week of Christmas on the River – they must dress according to instructions, arrive in a timely manner, and display behavior appropriate to their title.
-  If a participant is not able to meet the above requirements for attendance a written excuse signed by parent/guardian must be provided – distance/travel is NOT considered an acceptable excuse.
-  The pageant committee will review all rules and regulations and will determine if a participant is in violation – rulings made by the pageant committee are final.
-  Any participant who is found to be in violation of the rules and regulations will be disqualified, will forfeit her title, and will not be allowed to participate in Christmas on the River pageants the following year.

After reading the above rules, please sign below.
